Employee Fraud—Risks and Remedies

Employee fraud is on the rise. It is pervasive. One recent study pegged annual losses globally at $6.3B, with the average organization losing $150,000, and 23% of them losing more than $1M. When executives perpetrate fraud, the median loss is 10 times higher. Also, organizations lacking anti-fraud controls lose two times as much. In this eye-popping presentation, David Hagopian and Jeff Sikkema explore the truly jaw-dropping risks posed by employee fraud in the workplace as well as effective remedies to minimize losses and maximize recovery.
