Swenson Advisors, LLP Launch the Swenson Children's Foundation

Premier regional accounting firm launches foundation focused on children

SAN DIEGO, California, May 5, 2016 - Swenson Advisors, LLP the premier provider of audit, tax and consulting services in Southern California launched today the Swenson Children's Foundation. The focus will be on children's health, mitigating child abuse, and helping homeless children and their families. The Swenson Children's Foundation will provide physical and educational resources from a biblical worldview.

"The Foundation is driven to change and positively impact children's lives for the better. Biblical faith is the key component in reaching the goals we have set in growing this organization. We have a highly qualified board to assist in building the organization to achieve our mission and embrace our values," states Sarah Austin, Executive Director of the Foundation.

A luncheon at the offices of Alliance Bernstein in La Jolla, California commemorated the official launch. Key community and business leaders attended the launch to learn about the Foundation's vision and mission.
